Batman: Arkham Origins features a new and original story in the series set in a new location and time period within Gotham City following the death of the Joker Batman: Arkham Origins Gameplay In Batman: Arkham Origins, players assume the role of Batman as he sets out to save Gotham City from the brutal thugs, gangsters and psychotic criminals known as the Jokerz. Batman: Arkham Origins has been officially released on Microsoft Windows, PlayStation 3, Xbox 360, and Wii U platforms on October 25, 2014. Each of the console versions are the same game, only with a different graphical and audio "look" at the game. Nintendo's Wii U version features the same graphics as the Xbox 360 and PlayStation 3 versions while the Windows PC version features a higher quality and more open world "visual" design than any other version, however the game has optional controllers. The Game of the Year Edition of the game was released for PlayStation 3, Xbox 360, and Windows PC on February 26, 2015. This edition includes all of the DLC released for the game (including The Joker's Wild and The Penguin and Harley Quinn) as well as all of the alternate costume items for Batman, The Joker, The Penguin and Harley Quinn, and all the voiceover dialogue for the Batwing, the Batmobile, and the Tumbler. The game was released for Nintendo Switch on July 2019. Batman: Arkham Origins takes place one year after the events of Batman: Arkham Asylum where the Joker, Penguin, and Harley Quinn are being held in Arkham Asylum following the events of the previous year's storyline. Following the events of the previous year, the Joker has escaped from Arkham Asylum, and plans to use his army of animal-themed assassins known as the Jokerz to take down Gotham City's population. During the game, Batman goes head-to-head with the Joker and the Jokerz in an attempt to save the city and return to Arkham Asylum. Batman: Arkham Origins Description Arcade title based on DC Comics characters and story, designed as a more "mature" Batman game. Check out our Batman
